

HARVEY SIDE 3 – JUDGE GAFFNEY and MYRTLE

MYRTLE- That's right. The stairs at the end of the hall. It goes to the third floor. Go right up, I'll be with you in a minute.

JUDGE – Well, where is she?

MYRTLE – Where is who? Whom do you mean Judge Gaffney? Sit down, won't you?

JUDGE - I mean your mother. Where's Veta Louise?

MYRTLE – Why Judge Gaffney! You know where she is. She took Uncle Elwood to the sanitarium.

JUDGE – I know that. But why was I called at the club with a lot of hysteria? Couldn't even get what she was talking about. Carrying on something fierce.

MYRTLE- Mother carrying on!! What about?

JUDGE – I don't know, she was hysterical.

MYRTLE – That's strange! She took Uncle Elwood out to the sanitarium. All she had to do was put him in. --- did you find it? I'll be right up. –They found it.

JUDGE – Who? Found what? What are you talking about

MYRTLE – When mother left the house with Uncle Elwood, I went over to the real estate office to put the house on the market. And what do you think I found there?

JUDGE- I'm not a whiz kid!

MYRTLE- Well, I found a man who was looking for an old house just like this to cut up into boutique apartments. He's going through it right now.

JUDGE- Now see here Myrtle Mae! This house doesn't belong to you. It belongs to your Uncle Elwood.

MYRTLE- But now that Elwood is locked up, mother controls the property, doesn't she?

JUDGE – Where is your mother? Where is Veta Louise?

MYRTLE- Judge, she went out to Chumley's Rest to tell them about Harvey and put Uncle Elwood in.

JUDGE- Why did she call me at the club when I was in the middle of a game and scream at me to meet her here about something important?

MYRTLE – I don't know. I simply don't know. Have you got the deed to this house?

JUDGE- Certainly it's in my safe. Myrtle, I feel pretty bad about this thing of locking Elwood up.

MYRTLE- Mother and I will be able to take a long trip now..

JUDGE – I always liked that boy. He could have done anything—been anything—made a place for himself in the community.

MYRTLE – And all he did was get a big rabbit.
